

For a Second Year, Commonwealth Strategic Partners Co-Founders George McElwee and Keith Pemrick Named Among The Hill's Top Lobbyists

WASHINGTON, D.C – Commonwealth Strategic Partners (CSP) co-founders and managing partners, George McElwee and Keith Pemrick have been named among The Hill's Top Lobbyists 2022.

Each year, The Hill recognizes those government affairs professionals who provide exceptional advocacy services to their clients. This is the second year in a row that McElwee and Pemrick have received recognition as Top Lobbyists. They are named alongside professionals from United Airlines, One Main Financial, Google LLC, and other major industry leaders. Aaron Grau, Executive Director of CSP client Invest in the USA, was also named to the list.

“We are honored to receive recognition as Top Lobbyists once again,” said Pemrick. “Our success is fueled by the close relationships and frequent contact we maintain with our clients. Those connections enable us to drill down with them on their key issues, respond to rapidly changing circumstances, and succeed time and time again.”

“Keith and I truly enjoy our work,” McElwee said. “That passion shows in the outcomes we secure for our clients, and it shows in the recognition we received again from The Hill. As we head into a new Congress next year, it will continue to propel ours and our clients’ success.”

In addition to McElwee and Pemrick’s recognition in 2021 and 2022, CSP was recognized as a Bloomberg Government Top-Performing Lobbying Firm in 2021.
